

THE SPOUT SPRING TIMES.

VOL. 1,

SPOUT SPRING, KY., APRIL 18, 1896.

NO. 13.

J. D. McKinney writes us from Hudson, Ill., that through the kindness of some friend he has been receiving THE TIMES, and to insure a continuance of its weekly appearance sends us 30 cents in payment for one year's subscription, and, also, sends 30 cents from Mr. Dillard Woosley, of Carlock, Ill., for one year's subscription.

In this letter of April 8th., inst., he said it was snowing there then and the snow was three inches deep. He writes that every thing out there is very low.

After making many inquiries about Old Kentucky friends, he said he enjoyed reading our paper very much, and that we must not forget him.

Mr. McKinney is well known in this part of the county having lived in this community all the time until he left here fourteen years ago. He has ever since been a resident of Hudson, Ill. He is one of the few who have left this county and gone west and been successful.

Subscribers for THE TIMES.

VIRIDEN.

The last few days make the tan bark man smile.

A. H. Anderson is building a new house at Argyle.

Teams now have a showing to haul gravel at Viriden.

We are well pleased with our new and fearless Brother of Broomsage. Ask him to give us his weekly advice.

Chas. P. Mendel, of Newport, visited J. W. Elkin Sunday.

Mrs. J. W. Elkin and daughter is visiting relatives at Engle, Ky.

J. W. Elkin sold to A. M. Shackelford, of Winchester, one hundred cases of eggs for $225.; 100 doz. goose eggs for $40.

Every thing is booming, our ladies are house cleaning and gardening; the woods echo with the sound of the timberman's ax; the valleys are full of teamsters hauling ties and gravel.

A new opening of spring and summer goods begins today at Burgher's.
